

Englewood Schools
Financial Advisory Committee

The role of the financial advisory committee is to review the financial status of the Englewood Schools and advise the superintendent on short and long-term financial issues that affect the district.

The 2005-06 charge of the financial advisory committee is to review the use of district facilities and make recommendations for the efficient use of those facilities.

The financial advisory committee's administrative liaison will be the chief financial officer who will have minutes taken of each meeting and report the committee's progress to the superintendent.

Proposed Committee Membership:

Elementary Parents	2
Middle School Parents	2
High School Parents	2
Business Community	2
Teachers	1
Classified	1
Administrator	1
Other	2
Total	13

Timeline:

April 2006	Disseminate information
May 2006	Answer questions/continue dissemination of information
June 2006	Brainstorm facility efficiencies
July 2006	Collect/review alternatives
August 2006	Recommend options to Superintendent/Board of Education